Get ready to enter the jungle - Greenwood will host our Spring Book Fair, March 9-13. We need your help!

Students can shop before and after school each day and parents are invited to join your student or load their e-wallet (information sent home in folders) to make purchasing easier.

Join us this Friday, March 6 from 7:45-9:30 am to help set up the book fair or volunteer before or after school to help students purchase books the week of the 9th. These are quick shifts and make a big difference in the success of our book fair.

Previous book fairs have helped stock Makers Space, purchased resources for the library, and contributed to our programs for students including underwriting SOL tutors as well as funding scholarships for After School Enrichment and field trips. Supporting the Book Fair supports our school!
