We can't wait to help your child find a new adventure this week during the Scholastic Book Fair. Students are invited to shop before or after school

Monday through Thursday and Friday prior to school. Please have your child check in with their homeroom teacher first before attending the Book Fair.

We need volunteers for a few more days to help our students find just the right books. Remember, Scholastic Book Fairs help our school by giving the PTA a portion of the sales. This money has been used for Maker Space items and new library books this school year.
